Senate

Chamber Action

Routine Proceedings, pages 20748–20794

Bills Introduced: 12 bills and 5 resolutions were introduced, as follows: S. 2005–2016; S. Con. Res. 47; and S. Res. 192–195. Pages 20690, 20738, 20749, 20764, 20765

Bills Reported: Reports were made as follows:

H.R. 3922, proposed Older Americans Amendments of 1975, without recommendation (S. Rept. 94–254);

S. 1425, proposed Older Americans Amendments of 1975, with an amendment (S. Rept. 94–255); and

Special report of Committee on Banking, Housing and Urban Affairs entitled "First Report on the Conduct of Monetary Policy" (pursuant to H. Con. Res. 113, 94th Cong., 1st sess.) (S. Rept. 94–256). Page 20749

Messages From the House: Senate received three messages from the House today. Pages 20748–20749

Amendments Submitted for Printing. Page 20765

Bill Held at the Desk: H.R. 8030, to increase the public debt limit, was received and ordered held at the desk. Page 20748

Bills Referred: Sundry House-passed bills were referred to appropriate Senate committees. Page 20749

Measures Passed:

Investigations Subcommittee documents: Senate agreed to S. Res. 192, to permit withdrawal of certain documents of the Permanent Subcommittee on Investigations for use in a grand jury investigation in California concerning prepaid health plans. Page 20690

Investigations Subcommittee documents: Senate agreed to S. Res. 193, to permit withdrawal of Permanent Subcommittee on Investigations documents to assist in prosecution of a case involving the operation of the University Center, Ann Arbor, Michigan, and the CHAMPUS program. Page 20690

Ladies' garment workers: Senate agreed to S. Res. 194, to commend the International Ladies' Garment Workers Union on its 75th Anniversary. Page 20738

New Hampshire Contest: Senate continued consideration of S. Res. 166, setting forth legal issues to be resolved by the Senate relative to the New Hampshire senatorial election contest, rejecting two amendments, as follows:

(1) By 42 yeas to 53 nays, Scott of Pennsylvania amendment (to modified Allen amendment No. 605), declaring the seat in question from the State of New Hampshire vacant effective June 25, 1975; and Page 20715

(2) By 45 yeas to 48 nays, Griffin amendment No. 627 (to Division 1 of modified Allen amendment No. 605), directing Rules Committee staff to retrieve and present for committee review and ruling all of the so-called "skip-candidate" ballots in custody of the Senate. Page 20729

Pending at recess was Cranston amendment (to Division 1 of modified Allen amendment No. 605), of a perfecting nature, to provide that vote No. 120 be counted for Mr. Durkin, on which amendment the yeas and nays have been ordered. Page 20742

During consideration of modified Allen amendment

No. 605 (calling for Rules Committee to retrieve from the ballots of a skip-candidate type a number of skip-Durkin votes equal to the number of skip-Wyman votes before the committee, and that all such skip-candidate votes be considered by the committee), Senator Allen modified his amendment to add language to provide that Senate shall not conduct a recount of the following precincts because of alleged inaccuracies in tally sheets of the Secretary of State of New Hampshire: Merrimack, Meredith, and Lancaster. A division was then demanded of the parts of this amendment.

Also during consideration of this measure today, Senate, by 56 yeas to 41 nays, three-fifths of the Senators duly chosen and sworn not having voted in the affirmative, failed to agree to a second motion to close further debate on this resolution. Page 20720

Interior Appropriations: By a yea-and-nay vote of 417 yeas to 8 nays, the House passed H.R. 8773, making appropriations for the Department of the Interior and related agencies for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1976, and the period ending September 30, 1976.

Agreed To:

An amendment that restores $106,000 to continue the Ocean Mining Administration;

An amendment that adds $9 million for the accelerated wetlands program (agreed to by a recorded vote of 220 ayes to 203 noes); and

An amendment that adds $3.3 million for nonperforming arts functions of the John F. Kennedy Center.

Rejected:

An amendment that sought to increase the funding for the Mine Enforcement and Safety Administration by $1.4 million; and

An amendment that sought to add $6.25 for operation of the national wildlife refuge system.

A point of order was sustained against an amendment that sought to require consultation with miners' representatives prior to promotion of safety education and training programs by the Mining Enforcement and Safety Administration.

The following amendments were offered but subsequently withdrawn:

An amendment that sought to add $3.1 million for the historic restoration of the immigration facilities on Ellis Island, N.Y.; and

An amendment that sought to prohibit any safety research not previously coordinated with the Mining Enforcement and Safety Administration.

H. Res. 625, the rule waiving points of order against the bill, was agreed to earlier by a voice vote. Pages 24318–24371

Energy Conservation and Policy: House continued consideration of H.R. 7014, to increase domestic energy supplies and availability; to restrain energy demand; and to prepare for energy emergencies—but came to no resolution thereon.

Took the following action in the Committee of the Whole on the committee amendment in the nature of a substitute:

Agreed to an amendment to an amendment to allow the price of new domestic oil to reach the world market price that provides for a tax mechanism to encourage the production of new domestic oil (agreed to by a recorded vote of 236 ayes to 187 noes);

Rejected an amendment, as amended by the previous amendment, that sought to allow the price of new domestic oil to reach the world market price, and provided for a tax plowback as an incentive for reinvestment in domestic production and drilling (rejected by a recorded vote of 202 ayes to 220 noes);

Rejected a preferential motion that the Committee rise and report the bill back to the House with the enacting clause stricken; and

Agreed to an amendment that strikes the section on oil-pricing policy (agreed to by a recorded vote of 215 ayes to 199 noes). Previously, by a recorded vote of 244 ayes to 168 noes, debate on this amendment was limited to 6:15 p.m. Pages 24371–24396

Tax Exclusion—Klamath Indians: House agreed, with amendment, to the Senate amendment to H.R. 83, to exclude from gross income gains from the condemnation of certain forest lands held in trust for the Klamath Indian Tribe; and returned the measure to the Senate for further action. Pages 24812–24813

Cleared for the President: House cleared the following bills for the President, by agreeing to the Senate amendments thereto;

Caprolactam: H.R. 7728, to suspend until the close of October 31, 1975, the duty on catalysts of platinum and carbon used in producing caprolactam; and

Open-top hopper cars: H.R. 7731, to suspend the duty on open-top hopper cars exported for repairs or alterations on or before June 30, 1975. Page 24814

Farm Disaster Loans: By a yea-and-nay vote of 398 yeas, the House agreed to the conference report on S. 555, to simplify procedures under which Farmers Home Administration loans are made to victims of natural disasters; clearing the measure for the President.

Agreed to S. Con. Res. 55, authorizing the Secretary of the Senate to make a correction in the enrollment of the bill; clearing the measure. Pages 24814–24818

Late Reports: Committee on Rules received permission to file certain privileged reports by midnight tonight; and the Committee on Government Operations received permission to file a report by midnight tonight. Pages 24812, 24818

Labor Rights: By a yea-and-nay vote of 230 yeas to 178 nays, the House passed H.R. 5900, to protect the economic rights of labor in the building and construction industry by providing for equal treatment of craft and industrial workers.

Agreed to:

The committee amendment in the nature of a substitute, as amended;

An amendment that prohibits common situs picketing where State laws require direct and separate contracts on State or municipal projects (agreed to by a recorded vote of 229 ayes to 175 noes);

An amendment that prohibits common situs picketing for the purpose of requiring an individual to join a labor organization;

An amendment that prohibits an extension of product boycotts to an entire construction site (agreed to by a recorded vote of 204 ayes to 188 noes); and

An amendment that inserts "employer primarily engaged in the construction industry" in lieu of "person" in the provisions to allow common situs picketing against an employer.

Rejected:

An amendment that sought to require that the issues of the labor dispute at a construction site do not involve employees (whether or not they are represented by a labor organization) of an employer who is not engaged primarily in the construction industry (rejected by a recorded vote of 176 ayes to 223 noes);

An amendment that sought to allow situs picketing of a general contractor if he signed an agreement during collective bargaining to subcontract union labor and then broke that agreement by subcontracting non-union labor; but, if no agreement was made by the contractor, it would be illegal to picket the subcontracting of non-union labor by the contractor;

An amendment that prohibits common situs picketing on all direct and separate contracts (rejected by a recorded vote of 176 ayes to 222 noes);

An amendment that sought to exempt residential structures less than three stories and without an elevator from the provisions of the bill (rejected by a recorded vote of 200 ayes to 202 noes);

An amendment that sought to exempt minority-owned firms which are composed of more than 50 percent minority employees from the provisions to allow common situs picketing (rejected by a division vote of 42 ayes to 84 noes); and

An amendment that sought to prohibit picketing of employers not directly involved in a particular dispute and in which the resultant reduction in work force would place the employer in violation of equal employment laws (rejected by a division vote of 25 ayes to 78 noes).

A point of order was sustained against an amendment that sought to prohibit picketing of a neutral employer in a dispute over an economic matter when that employer's workers have a lower wage scale than those who are involved in the labor dispute. Pages 24818–24844

Late Report: Conferees received permission to file a report by midnight Saturday, July 26, on H.R. 6674, military procurement authorization for fiscal year 1976 and the transition period ending September 30, 1976. Page 24845

Energy Conservation and Policy: House continued consideration of H.R. 7014, to increase domestic energy supplies and availability; to restrain energy demand; and to prepare for energy emergencies—but came to no resolution thereon.

Agreed to a motion that the House resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole (agreed to by a yea-and-nay vote of 351 yeas to 44 nays).

Pending when the Committee of the Whole rose was an amendment that sought to strike sections 301–303 of the bill. Previously, a point of order against the amendment was overruled.

Took the following action in the Committee of the Whole:

Agreed to:

An amendment that provides that equitable price applications on different petroleum products be maintained on the basis of the proportional costs in 1972 of those products except by order of the President (agreed to by a recorded vote of 236 ayes to 154 noes). Previously, by a recorded vote of 262 ayes to 125 noes, agreed to a motion to limit further debate on the amendment.

Rejected:

A preferential motion that the Committee rise and report the bill back to the House with the enacting clause stricken (rejected by a recorded vote of 123 ayes to 268 noes);

An amendment that sought to provide that the President shall review contracts for the export of petroleum products and allow him to prevent such exports if they are not consistent with national objectives; and

An amendment that sought to strike the section that provides for entitlements to small refiners to equalize the disparity in the cost of crude oil acquisition (rejected by a recorded vote of 51 ayes to 331 noes with 1 voting "present").

A point of order was sustained against an amendment that sought to strike all of title III and reinsert it without section 301 on oil pricing policy.

Pages 26936–26949

Notice of Committee Hearings. Pages 27339–27340

Measures Passed:

State, Justice, Commerce appropriations: By 61 yeas to 18 nays, Senate passed H.R. 8121, making appropriations for the Departments of State, Justice, and Commerce and the Judiciary through September 30, 1976, after agreeing to committee amendments en bloc, except for that amendment which deleted the word direct as it pertained to funding for SBA business loan program, thus restoring that word to the bill, and taking action on other amendments proposed thereto as follows:

Adopted:

(1) Pastore amendment appropriating $150,000 for Privacy Protection Study Commission; Page 27381

(2) Abourezk amendment increasing from $250 million to $307.5 million (fiscal year 1975 level) funding level for SBA direct loans; and Page 27383

(3) Leahy amendment to bar further funding for the Federal Fire Council. Page 27384

Rejected: Dole amendment to compel the Justice Department to withdraw from active cases in which busing, school closings, or involuntary transfers are being sought unless the relief prayed for is modified to exclude those remedies. (Tabled by 42 yeas to 35 nays.) Page 27387

Senate insisted on its amendments, requested conference with the House, and appointed as conferees Senators Pastore, McClellan, Mansfield, Hollings, Magnuson, Eagleton, Johnston, Huddleston, Sparkman, Hruska, Fong, Brooke, Hatfield, Stevens, and Young. Page 27414

Additional committee membership: Senate agreed to S. Res. 236, increasing from 10 to 11 membership of Committee on Aeronautical and Space Sciences, and from 18 to 19 of Committee on Commerce. Page 27414

Committee appointments: Senate agreed to S. Res. 237, appointing Senator Cotton to serve on Committee on Aeronautical and Space Sciences and Committee on Commerce. Page 27415

Resolutions Indefinitely Postponed: Senate indefinitely postponed further action on S. Res. 224, directing the President to enter into negotiations with the U.S.S.R. relating to limiting military deployment in the Persian Gulf and the Indian Ocean; and S. Res. 225, stating sense of the Senate that its approval of construction of facilities on the island of Diego Garcia not be considered as constituting approval of substantial expansion of U.S. naval presence in the Indian Ocean. Page 27330

Resolutions Placed on Calendar: The following resolutions, coming over under the rule, were ordered placed on the Senate calendar: S. Res. 228, to establish a temporary procedure for insuring coordinated action on legislative proposals on energy; and S. Res. 233, to express the sense of the Senate that the Federal Communications Commission render a decision on the request of the Washington Star for a waiver of the multiple ownership rules as expeditiously as possible. Page 27330

Rejected a motion to recommit the bill to the Committee on International Relations.

A point of order against the consideration of the bill was overruled.

Agreed to:

An amendment that provides discretion for the President in accepting the U.N.'s designation of countries "most seriously affected" by the current economic crisis;

An amendment that includes population planning programs as an item for "greatest emphasis" as used by foreign countries receiving aid; and

An amendment that adds language that forbids aid to countries that consistently deny internationally recognized human rights to its citizens (agreed to by a recorded vote of 238 ayes to 164 noes).

Rejected:

An amendment that would halt agricultural commodity aid to countries who do not attempt to reduce population growth;

An amendment designed to prohibit food aid to Latin American countries where the gross national product per capita exceeds $650;

An amendment that sought to strike out the waiver provision that allows the President discretionary sales to countries which sell or furnish goods to, or permit their ships to carry goods to or from Cuba or North Vietnam;

An amendment designed to provide for an accelerated repayment of outstanding U.S. loans to OPEC countries;

An amendment that would halt aid to any country 180 or more days in arrears in repayment of any U.S. loan;

An amendment that sought to add sense of Congress language that the United States provide not less than .07 percent of our gross national product in foreign aid to developing nations;

An amendment that sought to eliminate the President's waiver authority regarding aid to Communist countries;

An amendment that sought to prohibit funds for support of programs of the ILO or UNESCO; and

An amendment that proposed a straight reduction of 5 percent.

Two points of order were overruled against language authorizing the expenditure of certain funds that have been repaid to AID by borrowing countries.

An amendment that inserts a new title 8, Energy Data Base, that provides for strict verification audits of the petroleum industry, thorough accounting practices of persons engaged in energy-related industries, and civil penalties for noncompliance (agreed to by a recorded vote of 233 ayes to 162 noes);

An amendment that inserts provisions to limit pass-throughs to consumers of increased petroleum costs;

An amendment that increases the civil and criminal penalties for violations of the Emergency Petroleum Allocation Act of 1973 by producers, distributors, and retailers;

An amendment that prohibits the leasing of petroleum development rights on Federal lands to any person if more than one major oil company or more than one affiliate of a major oil company has a significant ownership interest in such a person. Previously, a point of order against the amendment was overruled;

An amendment that provides independent producers with certain limited exemptions from the rollback provisions of the bill; and

An amendment that makes the application of all amendments to the Emergency Petroleum Allocation Act of 1973 made under the bill retroactive to September 1.

Rejected an amendment that sought to strike the provisions establishing an Office of Petroleum Accounting and Auditing.

Subsequently, this passage was vacated and S. 622, a similar Senate-passed bill, was passed in lieu after being amended to contain the language of the House bill as passed. Agreed to amend the title of the Senate bill. The Clerk was authorized to correct section and title numbers, cross references, and punctuation in the engrossment of the bill.

Subsequently, agreed to H. Res. 753, electing Representative Ford of Tennessee as a member of the Committee on Ways and Means. Page 30937

State, Justice, Commerce, and Judiciary Appropriations: House further insisted on its disagreement to Senate amendment No. 8 to H.R. 8121, making appropriations for the Departments of State, Justice, and Commerce, the Judiciary, and related agencies for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1976, and the period ending September 30, 1976—and agreed to a further conference asked by the Senate. Appointed as conferees: Representatives Slack, Smith of Iowa, Flynt, Alexander, Burke of California, Early, Mahon, Cederberg, Andrews of North Dakota, and Miller of Ohio. Page 30937

Late Reports: Committee on Rules received permission to file certain privileged reports by midnight tonight. Page 30937

Committee To Sit: Committee on Standards of Official Conduct received permission to sit during House proceedings under the 5-minute rule on Wednesday, October 1. Page 30937

Japan-United States Friendship Act: House insisted on its amendment to S. 824, to provide for the use of certain funds to promote scholarly, cultural, and artistic activities between Japan and the United States—and agreed to a conference asked by the Senate. Appointed as conferees: Representatives Morgan, Zablocki, Hays of Ohio, Diggs, Broomfield, and Buchanan. Page 30938

Defense Appropriations: House completed all general debate and began reading for amendment H.R. 9861, making appropriations for the Department of Defense for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1976, and the period beginning July 1, 1976, and ending September 30, 1976—but came to no resolution thereon. Further consideration will continue tomorrow. Pending when the Committee of the Whole rose was an amendment that seeks to require disclosure of the funds appropriated in the bill for activities of the CIA.

Took the following actions in the Committee of the Whole:

Rejected:

An amendment that sought to increase funds for Army personnel counseling by $4.8 million (rejected by a division vote of 32 ayes to 81 noes);

A substitute amendment to the previous amendment that sought to restore $15.6 million in funds for Army recruiting activities (rejected by a recorded vote of 177 ayes to 228 noes with 1 voting "present");

An amendment to the substitute amendment that sought to add $5 million to the funds for recruiting for personnel counseling services (rejected by a recorded vote of 112 ayes to 296 noes); and

An amendment that sought to appropriate $233,000 for the Army's National Board for the Promotion of Rifle Practice (rejected by a division vote of 29 ayes to 35 noes).

Points of order were sustained against:

Language in the bill appropriating $233,000 for the Army's National Board for the Promotion of Rifle Practice and providing for payment of travel expenses of civilian members of the Board; and

An amendment that sought to insert language similar to that stricken by the previous point of order, but appropriating only $7,500 rather than $10,000 for incidental expenses of the Board.

H. Res. 752, a rule waiving certain points of order against the bill, was adopted earlier by a yea-and-nay vote of 370 yeas to 11 nays. Pages 30937–30989

On a request for a separate vote in the House, rejected an amendment that sought to forbid funds for the relocation of the National Oceanographic Office headquarters of the Navy (rejected by a yea-and-nay vote of 190 yeas to 220 nays). This amendment was previously adopted in the Committee of the Whole on Wednesday, October 1, by a recorded vote of 219 ayes to 193 noes.

Rejected an amendment that sought to insert a new section prohibiting the use of funds to close various military installations throughout the United States (rejected by a yea-and-nay vote of 130 yeas to 274 nays with 1 voting "present"); and Rejected a technical amendment.

The Clerk was authorized to correct section numbers and punctuation in the engrossment of the bill.

Pages 31418–31432

Beef Research and Information: By a yea-and-nay vote of 229 yeas to 189 nays with 1 voting "present," the House passed H.R. 7656, to enable cattle producers to establish, finance, and carry out a coordinated program of research, producer and consumer information, and promotion to improve, maintain, and develop markets for cattle, beef, and beef products.

Rejected a motion to recommit the bill to the Committee on Agriculture.

Agreed to:

The first committee amendment;

The second committee amendment as amended by an amendment that provides that the cattle producers must post a bond or security prior to the holding of a referendum by the Secretary of Agriculture.

American Technicians in Sinai: By a yea-and-nay vote of 341 yeas to 69 nays, with 1 voting "present," the House passed H.J. Res. 683, to implement the United States proposal for the early warning system in Sinai.

Agreed to:

An amendment, as amended by a substitute, that specifies that no new authority with respect to the introduction of U.S. military forces not already possessed by the President is granted by the provisions of the joint resolution. Prior to its amendment by the substitute, the amendment sought to require congressional approval of the employment of U.S. forces to remove American technicians in the event of renewed hostilities;

The substitute amendment to the previous amendment (agreed to by a division vote of 124 ayes to 71 noes); a point of order against the substitute was overruled; and

An amendment that specifies that reports from the President on participation of U.S. technicians in the peacekeeping force include a forecast on the feasibility of ending, as well as reducing, U.S. participation.

Rejected:

An amendment that sought to limit the duration of the authority for assignment of American technicians to 2 years (rejected by a recorded vote of 122 ayes to 287 noes); and

An amendment that sought to provide for the removal of U.S. technicians if hostilities are renewed by any forces or personnel other than those of Egypt or Israel.

A point of order was sustained against an amendment that sought to reduce any future U.S. contributions to the United Nations for Mideast peacekeeping efforts by whatever amounts are expended for U.S. participation in the Sinai peacekeeping force.

H. Res. 775, the rule under which the joint resolution was agreed to, was adopted earlier by a voice vote.

Natural Graphite: By a yea-and-nay vote of 383 yeas to 10 nays, with 1 voting "present," the House agreed to the conference report on H.R. 7706, to suspend the duty on natural graphite until the close of June 30, 1978—clearing the measure for Senate action.

Pages 32509–32514

Federal Insecticide, Fungicide, and Rodenticide Act: By a yea-and-nay vote of 329 yeas to 80 nays, the House passed H.R. 8841, to extend the Federal Insecticide, Fungicide, and Rodenticide Act, as amended, for 1 year.

On a request for a separate vote in the House, agreed to an amendment that allows the Administrator to require private applicators to be licensed by the States and to complete training programs prior to their certification, but does not require an examination for certification (agreed to by a yea-and-nay vote of 250 yeas to 155 nays). This amendment had previously been adopted in the Committee of the Whole by a voice vote.

Agreed To:

The Committee amendment in the nature of a substitute, as amended;

An amendment that allows the Administrator to waive the requirements of notice and consultation with the Secretary of Agriculture if he determines that the suspension of a pesticide registration is necessary to prevent an imminent hazard to human health;

An amendment that allows the Administrator to require State licensing of private applicators (see separate House vote above);

An amendment to the previous amendment that exempts private applicators from having to take an examination prior to certification;

An amendment that deletes the section which bars the entry of agricultural products produced in any country which permits the use of pesticides suspended or canceled by the Administrator until those products have been examined for excess pesticide residue (agreed to by a division vote of 31 ayes to 20 noes); and

An amendment that adds a new section which would require EPA to provide information on integrated pest management to those individuals who request it.

Rejected:

Two amendments en bloc that sought to amend the first two sections to require the Administrator to have the concurrence of the Secretary of Agriculture before issuing a notice of suspension (rejected by a recorded vote of 164 ayes to 233 noes);

An amendment that sought to delete the section requiring the self-certification of private applicators to the Administrator;

An amendment that sought to specify those food products which must be examined for excess pesticide residue prior to their entry into this country; and

An amendment that sought to add a new section which would require that the application of pesticides to buildings and other nonfarm property be applied by a certified applicator (rejected by a division vote of 20 ayes to 44 noes).

The Clerk was authorized to make changes in section, subsection, and paragraph numbers to reflect the action of the House. Agreed to amend the title of the bill.

Pages 32514–32532

Committee Funds: Agreed to H. Res. 744, to provide funds for the expenses of investigations, hearings, and studies to be conducted by the Select Committee on Missing Persons in Southeast Asia.

Agreed to the committee amendment. Page 32532

Marine Fisheries Conservation: By a yea-and-nay vote of 208 yeas to 101 nays with 1 voting "present," the House passed H.R. 200, to extend on an interim basis the jurisdiction of the United States over certain ocean areas and fish in order to protect the domestic fishing industry.

Agreed To:

The committee amendment in the nature of a substitute, as amended.

An amendment that limits the definition of highly migratory species to tuna;

An amendment that removes the mandatory reprisals required by the act against any nation that refuses to commence negotiations in regard to reciprocal fishing rights within the 200-mile zone;

An amendment that requires that license fees collected and deposited to a Treasury account be subject to the appropriations process;

An amendment that changes the membership of the Regional Marine Fisheries Council; and

An amendment that provides that the refusal to allow any authorized representative of the Secretary to board a ship for inspection is not prohibited or unlawful if it is a right protected by international law.

Rejected:

An amendment that sought to provide that the provisions in the act would be on an interim basis until an international agreement has been concluded;

An amendment that sought to delete the section declaring the findings of the Congress that the fishing for coastal and anadromous species is performed on high seas with no regime of law; and the section declaring that the purpose of the act is not to authorize any impediment to lawful activities on the high seas except with respect to the conservation of fisheries resources;

A preferential motion that the committee rise and report the bill back to the House with the enacting clause stricken;

An amendment that prohibits fishing by foreign states within the zone before July 1, 1976;

An amendment that sought to provide that the establishment of the 200-mile zone would be on an interim basis until an international agreement has been ratified;

An amendment that sought to strike language requiring an import prohibition on fish products from nations in violation of the purposes of the act;

An amendment that sought to strike language extending the authority of the Federal Government in certain instances over State jurisdiction of fisheries within the 3-mile zone;

An amendment that sought to allow the President to suspend the provisions regarding enforcement if he deems it is in the national interest (rejected by recorded vote of 128 ayes to 196 noes); and

An amendment that sought to provide that the United States would consent to the jurisdiction of the International Court of Justice with respect to any claim or controversy arising as a result of the implementation of this act.

Agreed to amend the title of the bill.

An amendment to the previous amendment that provides that the provisions of the Act take effect 120 days after the enactment, and that the Civil Service Commission shall within 60 days thereafter determine the distinction between part and full-time elective office;

An amendment that limits investigations of prohibited activities to 90 days;

An amendment that requires the Board to request approval of the Attorney General in determining whether an employee's testimony is necessary to carry out its function;

An amendment that prohibits the extortion of money for political purposes from Federal employees; and

An amendment that requires the Civil Service Commission to submit any proposed definition of political activity to the Congress for its approval.

Rejected:

An amendment that sought to expand the definition of employees to include congressional employees;

An amendment that sought to prohibit Federal employees from giving political contributions to one another (rejected by a division vote of 17 ayes to 21 noes);

An amendment that sought to prohibit Federal employees from engaging in political activities or being a candidate for elective office unless it is a part-time elective office of a State or local political subdivision (rejected by a recorded vote of 147 ayes to 260 noes);

An amendment that sought to limit the ability of a Federal employee to engage in political activity only to the political subdivision in which he is a resident;

An amendment that sought to prohibit a Federal employee from holding or being a candidate for a full-time elective office unless it is of a State or a political subdivision of a State (rejected by a division vote of 41 ayes to 52 noes).

An amendment was offered but subsequently withdrawn that sought to exempt an individual in a position of policy-determining character which is not in the competitive service from the prohibitions on political activity.

The Clerk was authorized to make corrections in section numbers and cross references in the engrossment of the bill.

H. Res. 731, the rule under which the bill was considered, was agreed to earlier by a voice vote.

Bills Reported: Reports were filed as follows:

H.R. 2343, to designate the new Forest Service laboratory at Auburn, Alabama, as the "George W. Andrews Forestry Sciences Laboratory" (H. Rept. 94–606);

H.R. 30, to establish the Hells Canyon National Recreation Area in the States of Oregon, Idaho, and Washington, amended (H. Rept. 94–607); and

H. Con. Res. 466, Second Concurrent Resolution on the Budget (H. Rept. 94–608). Page 34593

Late Report: Committee on the Budget received permission to file a report by midnight tonight on H. Con. Res. 466, second concurrent resolution on the budget. Subsequently, it was made in order to consider it on November 10, or any day thereafter. Pages 34550

Maritime Authorization: House agreed to S. Con. Res. 71, to correct the enrollment of S. 1542, maritime authorization for fiscal year 1976; clearing the measure. Page 34550

Depository Institutions: By a yea-and-nay vote of 177 yeas to 147 nays, with 11 voting "present", the House passed H.R. 10024, to extend the authority for the flexible regulation of interest rates on deposits and share accounts in depository institutions, to extend the National Commission on Electronic Fund Transfers, and to provide for home mortgage disclosure.

Rejected a motion to recommit the bill to the Committee on Banking, Currency and Housing with instructions to report it back to the House with an amendment striking the section extending regulation "Q".

Took the following action in the Committee of the Whole:

Agreed to:

The committee amendments;

An amendment that clarifies the authority of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board to establish reserve ratios for negotiable order of withdrawal accounts, and the authority to require interest rates paid by member and nonmember institutions insured by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation on NOW accounts to be at the same rate;

An amendment that strikes the section that would allow financial institutions to offer negotiable order of withdrawal accounts (agreed to by a recorded vote of 218 ayes to 134 noes with 13 voting "present");

An amendment that clarifies the definition of mortgage loan;

An amendment that clarifies that the mortgage disclosure requirements of the title would not exempt State or local public disclosure laws, and provides that compliance will be enforced by the Comptroller of the Currency, and the Federal Home Loan Bank Board;

An amendment that exempts financial institutions with assets of less than $10 million from the reporting requirements of the title;

An amendment that changes the effective date after the enactment of the act from 90 days to 180 days;

An amendment that requires the Secretary to provide written summaries of mortgage disclosure statistics within 15 months of the enactment of the act and annually thereafter; and

Two technical amendments.

Rejected:

An amendment that sought to add a new subsection requiring member institutions to maintain a currency reserve against NOW accounts as established by the Federal Reserve Board. Previously, a point of order was overruled against the amendment;

An amendment that sought to require that either House of Congress could disapprove by resolution the elimination of interest rate differentials for any category of accounts which exist between banks insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation;

An amendment that sought to change the definition of mortgage loan to mean any loan secured by an interest in lien, encumbrance or mortgage upon real estate;

An amendment that sought to exempt depository institutions with mortgage loan portfolio assets of less than $500,000 from the reporting requirements of the title;

An amendment that sought to change the reporting requirements on mortgage loan disclosures to include written applications for mortgage loans (rejected by a division vote of 25 ayes to 32 noes);

An amendment that sought to strike the title providing home mortgage disclosure requirements for financial institutions (rejected by a recorded vote of 152 ayes to 191 noes, with 5 voting "present"; and

An amendment that sought to insert a new title 3 that would limit the application of the reporting requirements to financial institutions in 20 selected metropolitan statistical areas (rejected by a recorded vote of 165 ayes to 167 noes, with 4 voting "present."

Subsequently, this passage was vacated, and S. 1281, a similar Senate-passed bill was passed in lieu, after being amended to contain the language of the House bill as passed. Agreed to amend the title of the Senate bill. Pages 34551–34581

Calendar Wednesday: Agreed to dispense with Calendar Wednesday business of November 5. Page 34582

Referrals: One Senate-passed measure was referred to the appropriate House committee. Page 34593

Adjournment: Adjourned at 5:10 p.m.

Consumer Protection: House completed all general debate and began reading for amendment H.R. 7575, Consumer Protection Act of 1975—but came to no resolution thereon. Further consideration will continue tomorrow.

Took the following action in the Committee of the Whole:

Agreed to:

A clarifying amendment;

An amendment that exempts businesses with less than $1 million in net assets or with fewer than 25 employees from the provisions empowering the Agency for Consumer Protection (ACP) to issue interrogatories or request information (agreed to by a recorded vote of 401 ayes to 6 noes); and

An amendment that requires the ACP to report to the appropriate oversight committees of the Congress on whatever interrogatories it issues and on any complaints made against the Agency for alleged abuse of its information gathering authority.

Rejected an amendment that sought to establish the ACP as a totally independent agency run by an Administrator appointed for a single 15-year term.

A point of order was sustained against an amendment in the nature of a substitute that sought to establish the ACP as an arm of Congress rather than as an agency of the executive branch.

H. Res. 798, the rule under which the bill is being considered, was adopted earlier by a voice vote.

INDEX

This index is keyed to the DIGEST as published with the DAILY CONGRESSIONAL RECORD; the page references below are listed accordingly, as D5, D6, etc.

The bill numbers of proposed legislation are affixed to the subject references so that the subject matter of each measure will be readily available. The breakdown under each subject divides the action on the proposals according to: hearings or actions by House or Senate committee or joint or conference committee, consideration or action by House or Senate Chamber on the measures, and the public law numbers when the bill or resolution has been enacted.
